Roofing that's good enough for Kansas may not stand New England's climate.

That is why so many
New England people are disappointed when they buy ready roofing.

AQUAS is New England's roofing

Roofing is made especially for this climate by saturating a heavy waterproofed wood felt with a mixture of Benzolene and Tarsolene Lake asphalt.
So a roof is adapted to weather changes in temperature and atmosphere.
It does not crack or curl in the coldest weather, does not shrink or pull away in the hottest weather, and is completely waterproof.

HEART THRILLING GEMS.

THE LAKE OF THE DISMAL SWAMP.

They made her a grave too cold and damp,
For a soul so warm and true,
And she's gone to the Lake of the Dismal Swamp.
Where all night long, by a firefly
lamp
She paddles her white canoe.
And her firefly lamp I soon shall see,
And her paddle I soon shall hear:
Long and loving our life shall be,
And I'll hide the maid in a cypress tree
When the footstep of death is near.

Away to the Dismal Swamp he speeds,
His path is rugged and sore,
Through tangled juniper, beds of reeds,
Through many a fen where the serpent feeds,
And man ne'er trod before.

And when on the earth he sank to sleep,
If sleep his eyelids knew,
He lay where the deadly vipers do weep
Their venomous tears and nightly steep
The flesh with blistering dew.

And near him the snow-wolf stirred the brake,
And the rattlesnake breathed in his ear,
Till the starting creed, from his dreams
awoke,
Oh, when shall I see the dusky lake
And the white canoe of my dear!

He saw the lake, and a meteor bright
Quick o'er its surface played.
"Welcome," he said, "my dear one's light!"
And the dim shore echoed for many a night
The name of the death-cold maid!

Till he formed a boat of the birchen bark
Which carried him off from the shore;
For he followed the meteor's spark.
The winds were high and the clouds
were dark,
And the boat returned no more.

But off from the Indian hunter's camp,
The lover and maid so true
Are seen at the hour of midnight damp,
To cross the lake by a firefly lamp,
And paddle their white canoe.
Thomas Moore.

THE EVENING PRAYER.
In the twilight of my days,
In the evening of the years,
Life unto my saddened gaze
Seems a vision veiled in tears.
All the knowledge fades away
That I vainly thought to keep;
As a little child I pray:
"Now I lay me down to sleep."

I have wandered far from Thee
Since that childish prayer I said,
And the lips that taught it me
Have been gathered to the dead;
Yet her face I seem to see
When the evening shadows creep
And again, as at her knee,
"Pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep!"

Softly fades the lingering light:
Lo the last beam leaves the skies;
And I watch, amid the night,

For the evening star to rise,
Far beyond the bounds of space
I may drift ere day shall break;
Let me see my mother's face
"If I die before I wake!"

Darker grows the gathering gloom,
While my soul its vigil keeps
With the memories that loom
Up from life's unsounded deeps,
When upon a sunless strand
I shall hear the surges break,
Ere I near the Nameless Land,
"Pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take!"
—Maria Conway Cramer in the Independent.

THE MEN WHO WON.

There's a voice and a shout for the men who win,
There's a storm of applause and of wonder;
But never a cheer for the men whose sin
Was only to fall and blunder.
So here is a song for the men who moli
With the frowning skies above them,
And here is a toast for the sons of toll-
To the men who lose—God love them!

Oh, what is success but an empty game?
What is wealth but a bubble over?
Yet right is a something more than a name
Though the wrong rides high forever.

So here is a song for the ones that live
Though fortune ne'er caress them,
And here is a toast for the souls that strive—
To the men who lose—God bless
them!

There's a cheer for heroes on land and sea,
There's a fame for the high endeavor,
There's a shout for the knight of chivalry,
There's a praise for the strong and clever.

But here is a song for the ones that live
Though fortune ne'er caress them,
And here is a toast for the souls that
strive—
To the men who lose—God bless
them!

—Edward Wilbur Mason, in National Magazine for May.

LITTLEFIELD ON PROHIBITION

The following are abstracts taken from an article by ex-Governor Charles E. Littlefield on prohibition. Mr. Littlefield says there is less insanity and crime in Maine than in Massachusetts, and also states that there is nothing in the policy or law of Maine that differentiates her from her sister states, except the prohibition law.

"Whether or not a community has prospered during a given period, from the material point of view suggested by Mr. Garvin, clearly depends upon the accumulation of wealth per capita, and its increase or decrease, and there Maine easily outstrips Massachusetts, as her per capita wealth in 1890 was $210, while in 1900 it was $352, an increase of four and one-half times. Massachusetts had per capita in 1890 $277, and in 1900 $353, an increase of only two and four-fifths times.

"This is the period covered by the Maine law. Moreover, from 1880 to 1902 Maine has decreased her indebtedness per capita $10, and Massachusetts has increased hers by the same amount.

"The liquor traffic is the most prolific and potential source of insanity, pauperism and crime.

"In 1900 Maine had 885 insane in the hospital, 1253 for every 100,000 people. Massachusetts had 899, or 2845 for every 100,000, more than twice as many as Maine, notwithstanding the fact that the death record in Massachusetts for insanity in hospital was 1925, while only 96 in Maine, nearly eleven times as many when there should only have been four times as many. Maine shows a decrease of the number of insane with her relatively small death rate of insane, since 1890 of 1123 in every 100,000 people, while Massachusetts shows an increase of 1 in every 100,000.

"There were of prisoners in Maine June 1, 1900, 512, or 374 for every 100,000; in Massachusetts, 622, or 433 for every 100,000, three times as many as in Maine. Among the offenders were: Against the public peace, Maine, 7; Massachusetts, 47. Against the public morals, Maine, 163;

Massachusetts, 1712. Against Maine, 36; Massachusetts, 315. Drunk and disorderly, Maine 146; Massachusetts, 1811.

"June 30, 1904, there were of prisoners for drunkenness in Maine 129 and in Massachusetts 2119, a proportion of more than ten to one, when if parallel it should be four to one. This is a record with which Maine has no intention to be discouraged.

"Maine's death rate from alcoholism in 1900 for every 100,000 people was 2.3; that of Massachusetts was 6.9, three times as great.

Mr. Littlefield also states that there is no reason why the people of Maine should not feel satisfied with the results of comparison with other states as it demonstrates that she is easily one of the most prosperous.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Last Thursday the Ladies' Club was invited to meet with Mrs. J. C. Purinton. When it became known it was her birthday anniversary, the ladies thought it would be pleasant to give her a little surprise in honor of the day and in recognition of her long and faithful service to the club.

The regular program that received attention and as the hostess prepared to serve light refreshments, there was just a suggestion of mystery pervaded the atmosphere, which began to be solved when Mrs. William Bean read an original poem, dedicated to the hostess, which was most appropriate and expressed the good wishes of the club. During the serving of cakes and cake in because cakes were not connected in the program were being served and the surprise was complete when a beautiful birthday cake with the candles lighted was brought in and presented to the hostess, who was also the recipient of a bouquet of apple blossoms and a large bouquet of pink roses. At the close of a social hour the guests extended congratulations with the wish for the return of many happy birthdays. Miss Belle Partridge acted as toast and added much to the success of the happy surprise.

One of the principal features with the Lyman Bros. Band Minstrels will be the reappearance of Leaky Brothers in America, since their tour of the principal cities of Europe, which included a ten weeks' engagement at the Coliseum Hippodrome, in London, England, where their act met with great favor and was witnessed by Queen Victoria. European agent, and immediately by an agreement was made and they were engaged for their first return appearance in America. They have the reputation of being one of the few act stars who have performed and appeared before royalty. This season started exactly in London a week the most successful performance which has yet appeared in America, performing successfully in London, Paris, and other cities. The Lyman Bros. are the featured act at each performance, at the Lyman Bros. theatre.

DIXFIELD ITEMS.

The Happenings of the Week as gathered by the Citizen Reporter.

The funeral services of Mr. Ferdinand Macomber were held at his home Monday, A. M., at 10 o'clock. Mr. Macomber's death occurred Saturday, and was a great shock to the community, as he was confined to his bed only a few days, having typhoid fever. Mr. Macomber had lived in the village for several years, and about three weeks ago moved to the farm he had recently purchased of Mr. Orlando Hobb, having sold his stand in the village. Mr. Macomber was an honest, industrious citizen, well known throughout the community. He leaves a widow, six children, an aged father, who have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. He was 48 years of age. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

The W. G. O. L. C. Club were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Henrietta Thompson.

Some interesting notes from the school are as follows:

A new book case has been purchased by the intermediate grade.

The high school scholars are working hard to raise money for a piano, for their room.

New globes have recently been put in the several grades of the Dixfield school.

The pupils from Mrs. Lane's room have added several new games to the play ground, among them, a set of quoits, and a tester board.

Mrs. Mattie Kilgore has been quite sick the past few days.

Mr. Marshall White, who suffered a stroke of paralysis Wednesday of last week is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Isabel Russell and guests, the Misses Lillian and Freda Dole of Boston, enjoyed an auto trip to Wald, Thursday of last week, and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Russell's aunt, Mrs. Frank Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Farrington and daughter of Andover were guests of Mr. Farrington's parents Sunday, May 14.

Mrs. Walter Chase recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown, at Locke's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stearns were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Colman at Wald a few days the past week.

In the notice of death of Mr. March, given in last week's issue, the name should have been Columbia instead of Augusta, as given. The funeral service was held at the home of his nephew, Mr. Fred Hamantoni. He was 71 years of age.

There are four new touring cars in town. Mr. Maurice McIntire and Z. V. Taylor have purchased Red cars to be used for the public. The new Velle car of Mr. Geo. Gray attracts considerable attention.

FIRE AT EAST ANDOVER.

Saturday morning at 3:30 the family of C. B. Crocker, who live on the Ropes Merrill farm at East Andover were awakened to find their buildings on fire and had only time to escape from the flames in their night clothes.

Mrs. Crocker tried to go back into the house, but the stairway was too smoky and she did not attempt it.

Only a few articles of furniture were saved and very little bedding. Quite a sum of money was also burned.

A horse, cow and calf, horse, a quantity of hay, 60 dollars worth of glass, tinware, wares, and farming outfit of all kinds were burned with the barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker have four small children and a father and mother, who live with them, and on the time of the fire were most heavily asleep in the carriage.

The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Crocker and family have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

MRS. MARY E. GORHAM.

Mrs. Mary E. Gorham, who was buried from the home of her sister, Miss Kimball and Mrs. Sander at Middlebury last Thursday afternoon, was born in Bethel, eighty years ago, the 18th of this month.

In her young womanhood she married David A. Gorham of Norway. They lived in Massachusetts for several years and Mrs. Gorham united with the First Congregational church of Lawrence, more than forty years ago.

After their return to Maine they resided in a home near Mrs. Gorham's birthplace where Mr. Gorham died four years ago last fall. The following winter Mrs. Gorham fractured her hip, from which she has suffered ever since.

She also has borne this as she has borne the former loss of life, with Christian grace and fortitude and cheerfulness.

Surrounded by all who have her, and much highly esteemed by those who were in her intimacy, she has fought the good fight, kept the crown, and passed on to the home of the blessed.

To meet the dear ones who had preceded her and continue the record of her faithful life.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Bethel Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does come that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up" most alert to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or throbbing, dizzy heads, bearing-down pains, they must sleep over, when to sleep means torture. They must walk and stand and work with aching pains and many other from kidney life. Kidney cases were affecting their every other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people in this locality.

Mrs. Maria Burns, 208 Prospect Ave., Portland, Me., says: "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for years. The kidney troubles were constant and I was nearly over the top from pain in the small of my back. I also had all backache, locked energy and felt miserable in every way. I was always taking medicine, but nothing ever gave me a night's sleep. I was so miserable I finally took to my bed. I strongly recommend this preparation."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50c. Write: Foster Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and agents for the United States. Remember the name—Foster's—on the wrapper.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Bethel Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

In Bethel, where women have more than a fair share of the ills and pains that afflict humanity, they must "keep up" most of the time in spite of constantly making tanks, or crutches, dry spells, tearing down pants, they must sleep over, when to sleep means torture. They must walk and bend and work with shaking pains and make a life from misery. The Bethel women are suffering from any other signs of the body. Keep the kidneys well and truth is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidney trouble that will cure the kidneys and is endorsed by people in this locality.

Mrs. Marie Evans, 108 Prospect Ave., Bethel, Me., says: "I was a mother from infancy for years. The kidney troubles were continual and I was nearly over from pain on the small of my back. I also had bad headache, tired energy and felt miserable in every way. I was always taking medicine, but nothing ever gave me of as much benefit to me as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I strongly recommend it to everyone."

DIXFIELD ITEMS.

The Happenings of the Week as gathered by the Citizen Reporter.

The funeral services of Mr. Ferdinand Morehead were held at his home Monday, A. M., at 10 o'clock. Mr. Morehead's death occurred Saturday, and was a great shock to the community. He was confined to his bed only a few days, having typhoid fever. Mr. Morehead had lived in the village for several years, and about three weeks ago moved to the farm he had recently purchased of Mr. Orlando Babby, having sold his stand in the village. Mr. Morehead was an honest, industrious citizen, well known throughout the community. He leaves a widow, six children, an aged father, who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. He was 45 years of age. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

The W. O. O. I. G. Club were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Henrietta Thompson.

Home interesting notes from the school as follows:

A new book case has been purchased by the intermediate grade.

The high school scholars are working hard to raise money for a piano, for their room.

New globes have recently been put in the several grades of the Dixfield school.

The pupils from Mrs. Lane's room have added several new games to the play ground, among them, a set of quoits, and a feather board.

Mrs. Hattie Kilgore has been quite sick the past few days.

Mr. Marshall White, who suffered a stroke of paralysis Wednesday of last week is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Isabel Russell and guests, the Misses Lillian and Freda Deas of Boston, enjoyed an auto trip to Wald, Thursday of last week, and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Russell's aunt, Mrs. Frank Deas.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Farrington and daughter of Rumford were guests of Mr. Farrington's parents Sunday, May 14.

Mrs. Walter Chase recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown, at Locke's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stanley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coburn at Wald a few days the past week.

In the notice of death of Mr. Marsh, given in last week's item, the name should have been Columbus instead of Augustus, as given. The funeral service was held at the home of his nephew, Mr. Fred Hannaford. He was 71 years of age.

There are four new touring cars in town. Mr. Maurice McIntire and Z. V. Taylor have purchased two cars to be used for the public. The new Volvo car of Mr. Geo. Gray attracts considerable attention.

FIRE AT EAST ANDOVER.

Saturday morning at 5:20 the family of C. B. Crocker, who live on the Rufus Merrill farm at East Andover were awakened to find their buildings on fire and had only time to escape from the house in their night clothes.

Mrs. Crocker tried to go back into the house, but the stairway was in flames and the heat intense.

Only a few articles of furniture were saved and very little bedding. Quite a sum of money was also burned.

A horse, cow and calf, barn, a quantity of hay, 50 dollars worth of planks, lathes, wagons, and farming utensils of all kinds were burned with the barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker have four small children and a father and mother, who live with them, and as when the loss of the home falls most heavily. The family are living in the carriage shop near the ruins.

The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Crocker and family have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

MRS. MARY E. GORHAM.

Mrs. Mary E. Gorham, who was married from the time of her father, Miss Russell and Mrs. Sutherland at Middle Intervale last Thursday afternoon, was born in Bethel, eighty years ago the 13th of this month.

In her young womanhood she married David A. Gorham of Norway. They lived in Massachusetts for several years and Mrs. Gorham united with the First Congregational Church of Lawrence, more than forty years ago.

After their return to Maine they purchased a home near Mrs. Gorham's birthplace, where Mr. Gorham died four years ago last fall. The following winter Mrs. Gorham fractured her hip from which she has suffered ever since.

But she has borne this as she has borne the former ills of life, with Christian grace and fortitude and cheerfulness.

Known to all who know her, and much highly esteemed by those who were in her family, she has fought the good fight, she has the crown, and passed on to the home of the blessed, to meet the dear ones who have preceded her and enter the reward of the faithful.

If Mothers Only Knew

When children are cross, irritable and peevish it does not signify that they have bad tempers. It shows that there is something wrong with the child which it is not able to explain, and which the mother—If she Only Knew—could easily and quickly cure. Mothers, study your child's symptoms: if cross, peevish, nervous, grumpy, fretful, with the bed, picky, the nose, has variable appetite or bowels, suffers with windcolic or headache, is irritable and restless, has farred tongue or offensive breath, you may be sure that child is troubled with worms, which cause nearly all the ills of childhood.

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

will give your children that vigorous health which is so important to their future happiness. Dr. True's Elixir expels the worms, if there are any—It is not a drastic laxative and tonic. It cleans out all waste matter from the stomach and bowels, tones and strengthens the entire system of children as well as adults. Dr. True's Elixir is a safe, pure, vegetable tonic and has been the standard household remedy for thirty years. Write for free book, "Children's Cough and Croup Remedy," sold by all druggists, 25c, 50c, 100c. True's Cough and Croup Remedy, the best Children's Cough and Croup Remedy, 25c, 50c, 100c. Dr. J. F. Headaches and Their Treatment.

In treating a headache, there is one safe rule to follow:—Never use any medicine containing acetanilid or similar acetar derivatives without the advice of your physician. They may give temporary relief, but they almost never reach the cause of the trouble and are likely to weaken the heart. The most common form of headache, frequently called sick headache, arising from a disordered stomach, may be avoided by care in the choice of food. Shun pastry, candy and rich food, take time to eat, chew your food thoroughly and keep your bowels in good condition by using one-half to one teaspoonful of L. F. Atwood's Medicine after each meal. This old reliable remedy has been a perfect blessing to thousands for sixty years. Get a bottle today, and prove it for yourself. Any doctor has it for thirty-five cents, or we mail a free sample on request. L. F. Medicine Co., Portland, Me.

Keep The Balance Up.

It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appetite, or to get tired easily, the least impudence brings on sickness, weakness or debility. The system needs a tonic, craves it, and should not be denied it; and the best tonic of which we have any knowledge is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What this medicine has done in keeping healthy people healthy, in keeping up the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take Hood's for appetite, strength, and endurance.

Arthur Tremaine left Monday for Boston, where he has accepted a position.

REGAL ROADSTER

This is the gem of car construction for 1911 and is easily in a class by itself.

It sells just as it stands for $900 f. o. b. factory

In Bethel, Rumford, Paris and Norway it has been characterized as the slickest article ever shown in Oxford County. It pulls a good strong 25 horse power, has all kinds of speed, has one of the best engines ever put into a car, is made strong and fit for business, has 100 inch wheel base and rides like a cradle.

Here Is Its Elder Brother

The Regal 30, Fore Door Type, $1,050

This is a fitting companion to the Regal Roadster, just as classy, just as sensible and just as taking. This too is in a class by itself and when shown up beside those claiming to be in its class, is out of sight in every detail.

Then there is the Regal 7-passenger, 40 h. p. for $1650

LOCAL HISTORY.

net's pond by Dr. Lapham. Another at Oxford, by Gen. John J. Perry, late M. G. of this District. Another at Paris, by Wm. C. Kimball, late U. S. Marshall, and one at Lovell, by D. R. Robinson, Esq.

The Norway L. Infantry, numbering 78 men, left for Portland on Saturday. 1500 people assembled to witness their departure. There was hardly a dry eye among that assemblage as they witnessed their departure. Many a God bless them will follow them. The citizens of Norway, including the ladies, did everything in their power to furnish them with these little comforts so necessary to a soldier. Thirty men of this company are six feet and upwards in height, and nearly all the company are armed with revolvers. Such a company of the hardy sons of Old Oxford will not fail to do their duty. They were quartered in Portland with the Portland Light Guards. Orders have been received from Gen. Wool, for the Regiment to remain in Portland till further notice. The Regiment is under the command of Maj. Gen. Virgin, who will transfer them to Capt. Gardner, of the U. S. Dragoons.

Bethel Rifle Guards. This company, recruited by Capt. Clark S. Edwards, was organized on Saturday afternoon last, by Maj. Wm. P. Frye, of the 3d Division, M. V. M. They made choice of the following officers: Clark S. Edwards, Captain; John B. Walker, 1st Lieut.; Cyrus M. Wornell, 2d Lieut. They are all men of true grit, and with a little experience will make excellent soldiers. After the election of officers Maj. Frye addressed the company reminding them of their duties to their country, the importance of strict and implicit obedience to their officers; and warning them of the disgraceful and disastrous consequences of any indulgence in intoxicating drinks, licentiousness and their kindred vices; and above all, he exhorted them not to forget their accountability to their Heavenly Parent. His remarks on this head were very eloquent and impressive, and will long be remembered by all who heard them. His remarks were listened to with strict attention throughout, and the hearty and enthusiastic manner in which they applauded him at the close, showed the impression his words had made on the members of the company.

On Sunday morning the Guards assembled at their quarters at 8 o'clock, and after prayer by Rev. John B. Wheelright they spent the intervening time, before church, in quiet conversation, singing, etc. There are some very fine voices among them, and "We are going home," as sung by them had a peculiarly tranquillizing effect. No boisterous mirth or unbecoming conduct of any kind was seen during the day. They attended service at the 1st Congregational Church in the forenoon, where they listened to a very impressive discourse by Rev. Mr. Wheelright, from the words: "And David was greatly distressed, for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters; but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God." The music, prayers and sermon, were chosen especially for the occasion, and tears flowed freely throughout the whole large congregation. In the afternoon they attended service at the Universalist Church. Rev. Mr. Oakes delivering a very able and interesting discourse, which was listened to with marked interest and satisfaction. At half-past five P. M. they went to the M. E. Church where they were addressed by Revs. Messrs. Blackman, Oakes, and Wheelright, and Dr. Tree. Dea. Geo. W. Caspary, a venerable blind patriarch, addressed them briefly, in a very feeling and fatherly manner. His remarks were listened to with respect and attention by all.

The following is a list of officers and privates as the company roll, as it now stands:—
Clark S. Edwards, Captain.
John B. Walker, 1st Lieut.
Cyrus M. Wornell, 2d Lieut.
D. W. Bricker, 1st Serg't.
Charles C. Barker Assistant Orderly.
Benjamin Freeman, 3rd Serg't.
Thomas W. Barker, 3rd Serg't.
William B. Hutchins, 4th Serg't.
Am. F. Knight, Clerk.
Washington P. Brown, 1st Corporal.
Frederic Young, 2nd Corporal.
Peter G. Hays, 3d Corporal.
James L. Parker, 4th Corporal.

PRIVATE.
George P. Barker, William M. Little, John W. Hays, Lewis C. Grant, Edmund Merrill, Jr., Andrew J. Ayer, Jas. H. Cowley, Charles Hutchins, T. Brown, John J. Frye, Joe. L. Oliver, George A. Brown, Joe. rows, E. G. Poncy, Lafayette G. Goodnow, Chas. M. Westworth, Merrill S. Eastman, Moses P. Kimball, Albin Adams, Dustin A. Cook, Nelson Rice, Daniel Griffin, Levi W. Towle, John W. Sanborn, James C. Ayer, Wm. H. Higgins, Stephen Burbank, Washington B. Robertson, Clement S. Heath, John A. Bryant, Clara S. Wells, Aaron F. Jackson.

Owing to sickness and two crowded state of our columns last week, several items of local interest were left out, among which were a notice of the "Bethel Rifle Guards," several flag raisings, etc. We notice that Mr. Ira C. Kimball has erected a flag staff over his store from which now floats the stars and stripes in all their glory. Mr. Benj. Freeman has also raised a flag in front of his residence, on Church St. We notice, also, that many of the ladies wear the "red, white and blue," in the form of rosettes, bows with long pendants ornamented with stars, and numerous other neat and tasty devices. Many of the young men, also, wear the red, white and blue in various forms, and almost every one feels and owns their talkative power. We are glad to see that Bethel is not behind her sister towns in the manifestation of patriotic spirit.

ORIGINAL POETRY.

Farewell of the Bethel Rifle Guards.
By Sergeant Barker.
Near the white hills of New Hampshire,
By the pleasant Androscoggin,
Lies the goodly land of Bethel,
With our happy, happy homes.

CHORUS.
We're a band of soldiers,
We're a band of soldiers,
We're a band of soldiers,
And we're marching to the foe.

CHORUS.
We have left our far hill country,
To fulfill a heart-felt duty,
For to us it is a duty,
To strike the traitors down.

CHORUS.
On the sacred slide forever,
We'll sustain oppression never,
But we'll fight for freedom ever,
We're for freedom and reform.

CHORUS.
May no evil e'er befall us,
To sever or divide us,
But the God of Mercy guide us,
When we're marching to the foe.

CHORUS.
"Sergeant Barker" was evidently Charles C. Barker, who was a dentist on Bethel Hill at the date of the foregoing named sentiments, but I fail to connect his name with the Barker families of Bethel.

In the "Courier" of June 21 appears an account of the presentation at Portland, of a flag to the Bethel company by the ladies of the town. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Oakes, wife of the Universalist minister of the village, but a copy of the speech requires too much room to be presented here.

Dr. Lapham's history of Bethel contains the names of one hundred eighty-five persons who resided in the town with valuable data attached to each name.
